The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation of Mandatory Condition No. 1: "The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime during the term of supervision."

Nature of Non-compliance: According to a criminal complaint filed on September 24, 2021, officers with the Cedar Park Police Department responded to a call for service at the Baylor Scott and White Clinic, reference a victim who had been physical assaulted. Officers made contact with the victim, Ashley Johnson who advised officers that her ex-boyfriend Trinity Smith had assaulted her by strangulation, applying pressure to her nose so that she could not breathe, also pulling dragging her by her hair and kicking and stomping her. She advised that she lost consciousness on more than one occasion. Smith left the residence and took a photograph of her vehicle license plate and advised if she reported this incident to anyone, he would kill her and her son. She reported the assault lasted approximately 2 hours.

U. S. Probation Officer Recommendation: Due to the nature of the instant offense, and the risk the defendant poses to the victim, a warrant is requested so that this violation can be addressed by the Court to determine if the defendant's term of supervised release be revoked.
